

Dr. Donovan Griffin-Blake is an educational leader, academic scholar, and nationally sought-after speaker with over 25 years of experience in STEM education, leadership development, and workforce pipeline design. She serves as Assistant Dean of Student Affairs in the College of Pharmacy at Howard University and is President of the Maryland Association of Teacher Educators and a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated.

As Founder and CEO of Alchemy Consulting Group, she partners with organizations to build strategic, scalable programs that drive measurable impact. Dr. Griffin-Blake speaks on leadership, purpose-driven entrepreneurship, parenting through K-12 education, and creating pathways to opportunity.